

THE IMPERFECT PRAYER LIFE AND THE DESIRE FOR COMMUNION WITH GOD - Part one - Sunday, September 22nd 2024 - 5:30 p.m.
Pastor Don Horban, Cedarview Community Church, Newmarket, ON

Acts 4:23-30 - “When they were released, they went to their friends and reported what the chief priests and the elders had said to them. [24] And when they heard it, they lifted their voices together to God and said, "Sovereign Lord, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them, [25] who through the mouth of our father David, your servant, said by the Holy Spirit, 'Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples plot in vain? [26] The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers were gathered together, against the Lord and against his Anointed'— [27] for truly in this city there were gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, [28] to do whatever your hand and your plan had predestined to take place. [29] And now, Lord, look upon their threats and grant to your servants to continue to speak your word with all boldness, [30] while you stretch out your hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus.”

I have five thoughts on this text. We’ll look at three this week and two next:

- 1) NOTICE FIRST THE NEED FOR A DEMONSTRATION OF THE POWER OF GOD IN THIS FALLEN WORLD

This whole story comes as a result of a miracle - a lame man healed back in chapter 3:1-10. The lame man is representative of the human need, the plight of our world. Here it becomes obvious there are needs that go beyond the reach of doctrinally sound religion.

Notice, all sorts of people passed him as they were going to worship at the temple. Somehow we glimpse religion unaccompanied by the living power of Jesus. Such religion will never reach this lame man and will never transform today's needy world.

2) THIS MANIFESTATION OF GOD'S LIVING TOUCH APPEARS RANDOM AT FIRST, BUT FLOWS OUT OF THE CHURCH'S CORPORATE PRAYER LIFE

Verses 31-33 - "And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness. [32] Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. [33] And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all."

While following the miracle, these three verses also describe the ongoing results of that prayer meeting. We know from other passages in Acts that this wasn't just a shot in the dark prayer meeting. The early church was constantly together to pray. This was their first line of resource to the situations beyond the scope of their natural ability. In other words, this kind of meeting was built-in as a habit into the ongoing life of the early church. And it is clearly set up as a model and pattern for today's church as well.

3) PETER AND JOHN GIVE THEIR ACCOUNT OF THE MEANING OF THE MIRACLE THAT HAD JUST TAKEN PLACE

This comes about in the first part of chapter four: Three truths stand out in verses 10-18:

- a) First, the power experienced came from Jesus - 4:10-12 -
“....let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by him this man is standing before you well. [11] This Jesus is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. [12] And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.”

This is striking. The power of Jesus to save is linked with the power of Jesus to heal. This has almost been totally erased as a point of reference for today's church. In this Acts account people would know Jesus was the "cornerstone"(11), not by taking the disciple's word for it, but by seeing the living power of Jesus for themselves.

Whatever else stands out, it's obvious the Church had better not forget Jesus. Nothing else will ever substitute for His presence and touch. We are not called to know certain truths about Jesus (though that is very important). We're called to introduce people to Jesus Himself. And the prayer life of the church is the gateway to His life and presence.

- b) Second, it was obvious to everyone these men had been with Jesus - 13 - "Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated, common men, they were astonished. And they recognized that they had been with Jesus."

I feel convicted by these words. It wasn't just obvious these disciples knew something about Jesus. The people - people who as of yet didn't even know Jesus - knew these disciples had been in the presence of Jesus. They carried Jesus with them, so to speak. Such was the presence and power of the Holy Spirit with them.

What do people see about us? This question probes deeply. Do they just see that we're against divorce? That we're against homosexuality? That we don't swear or take the Lord's Name in vain? That we know more about the Bible than they do? Or do they sense something else? Do they sense more than me in everything I do. Do they see a Life - a Power - a Presence that is beyond myself?

Notice, you don't see Peter and John snorting about how great their faith was. There are no techniques offered here - no theatrical grandstanding. "These men have been with Jesus!" These onlookers weren't just guessing. They knew these disciples had been with Jesus. "We've seen stuff like this before! This is what Jesus does! And now He's still at work, doing the same thing through His followers!"

Please think deeply about this. Jesus talked about the meaning of “being with” Him. It can’t come about fully by reading books - even good books about Him. It’s more than singing songs. There is a spiritual ingraining required that only the Holy Spirit can bring about. There’s an internalness to the whole process - one Life penetrating another. Jesus said it was like a branch being with a vine. You can’t just lie them down beside each other - even very closely beside each other.

We’re studying the Holy Spirit and the rhythm of your prayer life. Only in prayer can the Holy Spirit move beyond just your thoughts about Jesus to the impartation of His life and presence into your being.

Remember, these onlookers weren’t yet believers. Yet they recognized those who have been with Jesus - people who carried His touch and power in their daily lives. These were plain, ordinary, uneducated people - people just like you and I. But none of those were important factors. They had been with Jesus.

- c) Third, there will always be resistance to the presence and work of Jesus in this fallen world. - 17-18 - “But in order that it may spread no further among the people, let us warn them to speak no more to anyone in this name.” [18] So they called them and charged them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.”

Regardless of your religious beliefs these have to be some of the strangest words ever recorded. They prove the reality of the work of Satan in this dark age. “But in order that it may spread no further....”(17). So that what spreads no further? Healing? Wholeness? Joy? Life?

“....In order that this may spread no further....” Where could that attitude of heart possibly come from? There’s only one reasonable answer - Satan. Wherever the cause of Christ is advanced there are and will be forces at work to squeeze the life of Jesus out of that situation, that individual, that marriage, that church.

This, of course, is exactly what Paul was describing in Ephesians 6:10-20 - “Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. [11] Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. [12] For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. [13] Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. [14] Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, [15] and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. [16] In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one; [17] and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, [18] praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, [19] and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel, [20] for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak.”

Where did Paul get these ideas? This wasn't a concept Paul picked up in some seminary library. Paul saw this battle as he took the message and life of Jesus into cities and towns. This had to be reckoned with - engaged - in the prayer life of the ministering church. To fight in our own strength is to lost the battle.

Two more thoughts next Sunday.
